Christmas Party:

Tentative plans for this year's Christmas party are underway. We are thinking of having the party at "The Settlement" (a BBQ restaurant owned by Big Hoss Bar B Que) on a Sunday afternoon in December. We were thinking that Sunday might be better than Saturday, as a lot of other company and private Christmas parties will be going on all month long. And we want to have a Hand Made Ornament Exchange! No store bought stuff please! show off your artistic talent and make something special to trade on the night of the party! Anyone have ideas for party games? Meal prices vary according to the menu, everyone will pay their own meal cost, but we may bring our own adult beverages if we like. Call me if you have any ideas! Sam 698-2009
